Get reliable protection from organic gases and vapours by adding 3M Adflo Gas Filter A2, 837542 to your 3M Adflo Powered Air Respirator. Our gas filter must always be used together with the particle filter (837010) and we recommend using the heavy-duty battery (837631). Your gas filter should be replaced according to your workplace requirements. It is not recommended to wait until odours can be detected. In some configurations it is also required to use the breathing tube with silencer (834009). Always verify approved combinations with your Safety Engineer or contact a certified Industrial Hygienist for advice.
