This 3M Versaflo M-206 Faceshield offers respiratory, bumpcap, eye and face protection. The helmet features a comfortable general-purpose face seal for dust, spraying, and chemical processing. Increased control and comfort with the deflector allow users to direct the airflow inside the headtop. Coated Polycarbonate visor provides added chemical and scratch resistance.

- Bumpcap protection
- Increased control and comfort
- Lightweight, compact and well-balanced

These head tops are for use with the Versaflo TR-315UK complete kit or the Versaflo V-500, V-100 or V-200 supplied air regulators.
