The Delta Tan Cowhide Leather Driver Gloves use a cowhide leather coating to provide a combination of dexterity and durability.

- Durable Construction: A moderately thick cowhide lining provides maximum durability for tough outdoor jobs
- Light Water Resistance: Designed to repel light levels of water for handling damp items
- High Dexterity: In using cowhide leather, the gloves provide a good level of flexibility
- Good Protection: Good all-round protection protects the hands against common outdoor hazards
- Comfortable: The padded design ensures comfort that lasts from the start till the very end
